DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE OF FUNDRAISER OR EVENT

PREFERRED STORE LOCATION TO HOST EVENT

Event Code of Conduct

Organization hosting the event agrees to the following:

- Bring any necessary supplies needed for its event including waste bags, pet leads and pet collars, paper towels, cleaner (that's safe around pets) and any other items.
- Not leave animals unattended.
- Not borrow toys, treats, or other products sold by Chuck & Don's. If such items are needed, my organization will purchase them prior to the event or from the cashier at Chuck & Don's during the time of the event.
- Clean up after any animals and people who are part of the event, which includes but isn't limited to dog accidents and any trash that accumulated during the event.
- Bring first aid materials necessary to handle an animal bite/scratch.
- For safety reasons, try not bring children under 16 to volunteer or accompany my organization on a scheduled in store event. (If children are brought to the event, the manager on duty may ask the volunteer to make alternate arrangements for the children, or remove them.)
- Have volunteers not use cell phones on the sales floor. Calls may be made or taken outside of the store but cannot result in leaving animals unattended. Cell phone use must be kept to a minimum and must not disrupt the event.
- Not bring food and beverages onto the sales floor at any time.
- Have all volunteers reflect a professional image at all times (including behavior and attire). Personal conversations between volunteers are acceptable as long as they maintain a professional demeanor and the conversation volume isn't disruptive to other store functions and customers.
- No smoking, alcohol, or illegal substances on Chuck & Don's premises (inside and outside the store).
- Be solely responsible for any sales my organization conducts (calendars, t-shirts, etc.).
- Notify Chuck & Don's immediately, if for any reason, my organization is unable to meet a scheduled event/time or will be late for an event.
- Confirm at least three days before the event via phone with the store manager for the upcoming event. Store staff must be able to contact event representatives in the event they are late or there are pre-event questions. Provide event attendee names and contact information, including a telephone (cell) number.
- Leave, upon store management's request, if you cannot abide by the terms of this document or if you disrupt the regular function of our business or customers.
- Guarantee proper training and certification to provide health care services to pets (excluding nail trims).
- If my organization is a for-profit organization charging event participants a fee for the event/service (such as massage or teeth cleaning), my organization agrees to donate 15% of revenue to a non-profit animal-related charity.

Violations of any component of this Code of Conduct may result in your organization's ability to conduct future events in any Chuck & Don's location. These decisions are made at the sole discretion of Chuck & Don's. Chuck & Don's will communicate all violations of this Code of Conduct to your organization's contact.

Liability Waiver & Partner Signoff

Assumption of risk, partner responsibilities, release, indemnification and acknowledgment.

1. Assumption of Risk

I, as the designated representative for my group/organization, acknowledge that when utilizing Chuck & Don's facilities for our group/organization's event, there exists a potential risk to myself, organization volunteers/staff (including minor children), team members, guests, and any attending pets. Some domestic animals may be challenging to handle and may, without warning, bite or cause harm to humans or other animals. Risks include, but are not limited to, animal altercations, animal bites, injury, property damage, and potential transmission of disease. Each animal responds differently, and the inherent unpredictability of animals is understood. I acknowledge that these risks cannot be entirely eliminated regardless of precautions, that participation is voluntary, and that my group/organization willingly assumes all such risks associated with our event.

2. Partner Responsibilities

☐

I understand that my group/organization is solely responsible for all harm and damage caused by my domestic animal while he/she is attending this event.

☐

I certify that my animal(s) is/are in good health and their vaccinations are up to date. Proof can be provided upon request.

☐

I recognize the inherent risk of illness or injury when dealing with animals, including illness from sharing toys or common water bowls and problems resulting from rough or high-energy play such as soreness, stiffness, bumps, bruises, scratches, fatigue, sore paws, blisters, or abrasions.

3. Release, Indemnification & Hold Harmless

My group/organization will assume all risk of injury and any damage, loss, and/or destruction of property resulting directly or indirectly from the actions of any animal(s) or any individual attending the event while in Chuck & Don's facilities, grounds, and any surrounding area. I understand that my group/organization is responsible for making sure that our animal(s) is/are up to date on vaccinations and healthy, and that contact with other animals may expose them to risk of communicable disease.

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, I hereby waive and release Chuck & Don's and its officers, team members, corporate office staff, and all persons acting on Chuck & Don's behalf from any and all liability for injury, damage, illness, claims, damages, costs and expenses, including litigation costs and attorneys' fees, of every kind and nature arising out of or in any way connected with events hosted by my group/organization in Chuck & Don's facilities.

I/we also agree to indemnify and hold Chuck & Don's harmless from any and all damages and injury caused to myself or others that accompany me. This includes, but is not limited to, claims, actions, suits, procedures, costs, expenses, damages and liabilities, including attorneys' fees, brought by myself or any third party as a result of involvement in the event, and to reimburse Chuck & Don's for any such expenses incurred. This agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Kansas, and Colorado.

4. Acknowledgment of Understanding & Signature

I have read this waiver of liability, assumption of risk, release and indemnity agreement, fully understand its terms, and understand that I am giving up substantial rights, including my right to sue. I acknowledge that I am signing freely and voluntarily. I intend that my signature is a complete and unconditional release of all liability to the greatest extent allowed by law.

☐

I have read, understand, and agree to the liability terms above.
